Topic Sentence: What's the Topic?

The topic sentence in a paragraph clearly states the main idea of the paragraph. While it is usually at the beginning of the paragraph, it also can be in the middle or end of it.

Topic: Are life jackets important?

Example: Everyone should wear a life jacket when they are on a boat. Life jackets have been proven to save lives. No one can predict when an accident might happen. There may not be enough time to put on a life jacket, but if you are already wearing it, it may save your life.

The Accident

It was a beautiful day! Mia put on her helmet and ran outside. She grabbed her blue bike that was sitting in front of the garage door and started to ride it. She rode for about 30 minutes when suddenly she hit a rock and fell off her bike. She began to cry because her right knee instantly started to hurt. She looked at it and noticed that it was bleeding. She cried even harder and yelled, "I need help!" Mom heard Mia yell from inside the house and came outside as quickly as she could. She told Mia not to worry because it was just a minor scratch. Then Mom put a bandage on Mia's hurt knee.

Popsicles!

Do you like popsicles? Did you know they were invented by a kid? Not only were they invented by a kid, but it happened by accident! One night in 1905, an 11 year old boy from California named Frank Epperson made a drink for himself by stirring some soda powder with a cup of water. Later, he left the drink outside and went to bed. With the stick still inside the cup, the drink froze during the cold night. When Frank woke up, he had a frozen drink on a stick!

Frank continued to make them for others and later started selling them. He called them epsicles. Later, his own children changed the name to popsicles. As you know, popsicles are still very popular today. The cherry popsicle, the most popular flavor, even has its own day. August 26th is National Cherry Popsicle Day.
